THIS SUNDAY THE DRAGONS MAKE THE LONG TREK UP NORTH TO FACE THE NEW SAINTS! THE GAME TAKES PLACE AT PARK HALL STADIUM WITH A KICK-OFF OF 14:00. THEY ARE THE ONLY TEAM PONTYPRIDD UNITED ARE YET TO FACE AND COULD BE THEIR BIGGEST COMPETITORS FOR THE FOURTH SPOT IN THE TABLE!

By Eloise Martin

The Dragons currently hold the fourth spot and are ahead of TNS by one point who sit just behind in fifth! Both teams have been in flying form and having had their previous fixture postponed, will be eager to take the three points.

Pontypridd United are on a high coming off the back of a 1-1 draw with top of the table Cardiff City last Sunday thanks to Renee Day's 93rd-minute header! The New Saints were down south last weekend to face Barry Town United coming away with a 3-2 victory.

Both teams have made impressive signings since last season and their stats are pretty equal. The sides have each won three games with TNS losing four vs Pontypridd United who have lost three and drawn once meaning it will be one of the league's most competitive games!

Speaking to manager James Fishlock ahead of the fixture, he said:

"It is going to be a competitive game and I am sure the battle for the fourth spot will go right down to the wire. We take confidence from last week's draw, but we have put that to bed now and we must back that up now this week in training.

"We will make sure our game plan is drilled into us and we will go up there looking to continue our good league form!"

PONTYPRIDD UTD VS CARDIFF CITY

MATCH REPORT

The Dragons take a point at home after facing the current league leaders, Cardiff City. Both teams scoring late in each half!

By Eloise Martin

VS

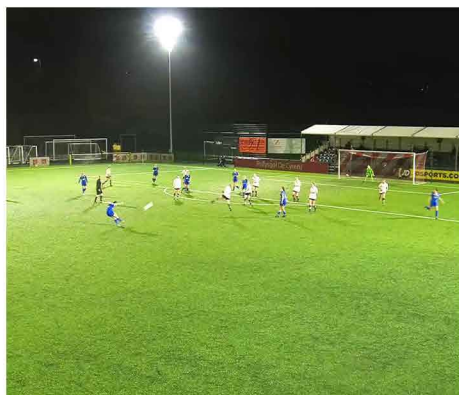

It was a thrilling but rainy day down at USW Sport Park on Sunday as Pontypridd United became the first team to halt Cardiff City's perfect start to the season. Renee Day's 93rd-minute equaliser meant that Cardiff City dropped points for the first time this league campaign. Coming off the back of the Dragon's 5-0 thrashing by the Bluebirds the week before in the FAW Women's Cup, they were sure to make a statement!

©PENALLTAPHOTOGRAPHICS

City were strong in the first half with the Dragons still settling into the game. City had the first efforts of the game with chances from a couple of set-pieces, but they were nothing that goalkeeper Maisie Jones couldn't handle! The Dragons had their chances too but were unable to break down the City defence. After a competitive first half Cardiff City found a goal through an excellent shot by Megan Bowen in the 40th minute. The Dragon's clearance from the box found its way to the feet of Bowen who took a touch before smashing the ball over the defence and it bounced off the crossbar and straight into the net.

MATCH REPORT

Now the second half was where the real show started! Not long in, Olivia Francis powered through the City defence before striking the ball which rolled just wide of the right post to give the Dragons their first chance of the half. At the hour mark, a poor clearance found Emily Bayliss who struck from just outside the box and her effort hit the crossbar before being cleared by the defence!

The Dragons continued to knock on the door and Clare Daley nearly found the equaliser when she halted the Bluebirds attack before sending the ball to Anais Trinci who sent Francis down the wing with the ball. Francis sent in a cross to Daley who had made the run down the pitch but she couldn't get a connection and the ball was cleared again.

Then City almost doubled their lead from a free-kick close to the box. Ffion Price curled a ball towards the top right corner where Maisie Jones had leapt to make the excellent save! It seemed Pontypridd United's efforts were not enough when in the 93rd minute Anais Trinci pinged in a ball from the corner to find substitution Renee Day who rose above all the defenders and guided the ball powerfully past the keeper!

©PENALLTAPHOTOGRAPHICS

With just minutes left Cardiff City were left with no chance to regain their lead and forced to drop points at the expense of an incredible team performance from Pontypridd United!

Speaking to a very happy manager James Fishlock after the game, he said:

"I am really proud of everyone today, It would have been easy last week for us to sulk and question ourselves, but we didn't. We worked really hard this week on a set game plan to try and frustrate Cardiff.

"We managed to limit them to that fantastic strike for their goal in the first half and as the second half developed we knew we had fantastic options off of the bench and I think we were the better team in the second half."

PONTYPRIDD MAISIE JONES

FIFTY CLUB

By Eloise Martin

This Sunday marks a huge milestone for our excellent shot-stopper Maisie Jones! She is an integral member of the squad and everyone at Pontypridd United would like to congratulate her on this achievement! We caught up with her to find out how she is feeling:

Congratulations on making it to your 50th appearance for the club Maisie, how does that feel?

I feel like it is a big achievement considering I'm still only 18 years old and this is only my second season playing in the Adran Premier league.

©PENALLTAPHOTOGRAPHICS

Do you remember your first ever game for the club?

My first ever game for the club I believe was against Cardiff met, even though we lost I still felt a sense of achievement for my first appearance and enjoyed every minute of it!

©PONTYPRIDDUNITED

PONTYPRIDD MAISIE JONES

What's your favourite thing about being a part of the Dragons family?

My favourite thing about being a part of the Dragons family is that we all have each other's backs, whether we have a good game or a bad game, we're always there for each other.

Do you have a favourite game you've played in?

My favourite game has to be Swansea away earlier this year! Even though the result was unfortunate, I could clearly see how much I've improved whilst being at the club through the saves I was making.

What are you looking forward to the most for the rest of the season?

I'm looking forward to hopefully being in the top four and challenging myself against the best teams!
